

RAMÓN DELCLAUX

Ramón, born in Bilbao, has a degree in economic and business sciences from CUNEF.

He has developed his professional career in the financial sector, where he has accumulated twenty-five years of experience working for BBVA, in functions related to the areas of corporate banking for large companies, capital markets, structured financing solutions and, more recently, global transaction banking, cash management and digital transformation.

Ramón is currently a member of the strategy committee.